A LOCAL DANGER.

Will the Chinese Drive Business Away from First and Front Street;
While exhauston of "Chinatown" has gone steedly on during the past few years it has been as graduay as to attract little notics. Our people bave looked on careleasty white Chinese occupation has crupt north and couth, along feecend atract, till it nearly monopoluses that thoroughfare; but the announcement than negotiations are in progress for the lease of the Taylor street church property by a Chinese firm, ought to rouns the public to serious consideration of a very actions maker. It is quite unnecessa, zy to say that a hoise or a district once given over to the Offinese in therefore playing highled. This effect has already been seen in Portland, and it is even more conspicuous in dan Franciaco.
